Consider your lifestyle and the lifestyle of others living with you. This will help us determine the best dog for you.

Check One	Activity Level	Example of Activity Level	Amount of Exercise and/or Interaction Needed	How Often
	Low	Couch Potato. This dog likes the easy life. This is a relaxed, laid back kind of dog who enjoys long naps, watching movies, curling up on laps and walking very short distances from the couch to the food bowl.	5 to 10 minutes	1 to 2 times daily
	Medium	This dog is a "jogger", not a "sprinter". He or she is somewhat active. Likes to jog short distances. Likes to go for long walks. Moderate exercise makes this pup happy.	10 to 20 minutes	2 times daily
	High	Take this dog for a big walk or two every day and give this dog a job and something to do. After this dog's job is done, curling up for a night of TV is heaven.	15 to 30 minutes	2 to 3 times daily
	Very High	If you want more exercise, this is the dog for you. This dog has tons of energy and is burning and working 24/7. This dog will run for miles, chase ball for hours and still want to play at the end of the day.	20 minutes to an hour	2 to 4 times daily

58. What is your expectation regarding a Foster or Adoptable GSD's obedience training level (choose one please)?

completely trained somewhat untrained untrained

59. What behavior would make a rescue dog INELIGIBLE to live in your home? Consider your lifestyle and the lifestyle of others living with you.

Foster Applicants Only

Adoption Applicants please proceed to the next section.

60. Have you ever fostered before? Yes No If you have, what type of animal and for what organization?

61. If your current pets end up not getting along with the Foster Dog, are you willing to continue to foster and separate them?

Yes No

62. How long would you be willing to foster a GSD for GSR&RC?

Please note that some Foster Dogs are in and out of Rescue after 8 weeks; others typically stay 12 to 16 weeks, and others can take awhile before the right home is found. We ask foster homes to foster a dog until the dog is placed. We need you to realize that the dog may be a resident for some time as we look for an appropriate home.

63. What circumstances would cause you to want to stop fostering our rescue dog and want us to find her/him another foster home?

64. Would visitors coming to your home, including tenants (if any) neighbors, guardians responsible for children, willing to sign a liability waiver? Yes No

Your Comments

65. Is there anything you would like to add; is there anything else you would like us to consider?

Our Policy

It is the policy of this organization to provide equal opportunities without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, sexual preference, age, or disability. Your acceptance into, and continued participation in, the foster and/or Rehome program is, among other things, dependent on your attitude towards foster work, your comfort level working with animals, your attitude toward animal rescues and our specific activities, and whether we have a dog that is appropriate for you and your current living situation.

Please sign and date it this form and mail it to GSR&RC at P.O. Box 210, Nahant, MA 01908.

If you prefer to email it to us, e-signing is accepted as a signature; send it to adopt@germanshepherdcenter.org.

If you prefer to fax it to us, fax to 617-249-1555.

We will respond to your application as soon as possible. We appreciate your patience as we are all volunteers; most of us have full time jobs and do this in our spare time.

Thank you so very much for your interest in GSR&RC, Inc.... it's all about the dogs.
